MILE END RECORDS

Frequently Asked Questions

Montreal's Online Destination for Alternative & Dance Music on Vinyl

About Mile End Records

What is Mile End Records?

Mile End Records is Montreal's online-first record shop specializing in alternative and dance music on vinyl. Born in the heart of Mile End—Montreal's creative hub—we curate a collection that reflects the neighborhood's eclectic musical taste: indie rock, shoegaze, post-punk, house, techno, and everything in between. Whether you're hunting for the latest Caribou pressing or a classic New Order 12", we've got you covered.

Why "online-first"?

We operate primarily online to keep costs low and pass those savings on to you. No expensive storefront rent means better prices and a wider selection. Plus, you can browse our collection anytime, from anywhere. We occasionally host pop-up events in Mile End—join our mailing list to stay informed.

Do you have a physical location I can visit?

Not a permanent one, but we do monthly pop-ups in Mile End where you can browse records in person, talk music, and connect with the community. Follow us on Instagram @mileendrecords for pop-up announcements and locations.

What makes Mile End Records different?

We're not trying to be everything to everyone. We focus on what we know and love: alternative and dance music. Our collection is curated by people who actually go to shows at Casa del Popolo, spin records at Datcha, and know the difference between deep house and tech house. If you're into the same music scene we are, you'll feel at home here.

Our Collection

What genres do you carry?

Our specialty areas:

Dance Music:

Our philosophy: We curate based on quality, not genre snobbery. Whether you're looking for the latest Caribou LP or a Taylor Swift reissue, we've got you covered. Good music is good music.

Do you focus on Montreal/Canadian artists?

Yes! Supporting local music is important to us. We stock records from Montreal labels (Arbutus, Fixture, Mothland) and Canadian artists across all genres. Ask Isobel about our local selection.

Do you stock new releases or just classics?

Both! We carry new releases from labels like XL Recordings, Ninja Tune, Warp, Domino, and Kompakt, plus reissues and classics from artists like Joy Division, Aphex Twin, My Bloody Valentine, and Daft Punk. We update our inventory weekly with new arrivals.

How do I know if you have a specific record in stock?

Just ask Isobel, our AI assistant! She can search our inventory instantly. You can search by artist name, album title, or even just tell her what you're in the mood for.

Do you carry 12" singles and EPs?

Absolutely. Dance music lives on 12" vinyl. We stock plenty of extended mixes, remixes, and club edits alongside full albums.

What about limited editions and color vinyl?

When available, we carry limited pressings, colored vinyl, and special editions. These sell out fast, so check our "New Arrivals" regularly or sign up for notifications.

Vinyl Care & Turntable Advice

I'm new to vinyl. What turntable should I buy?

For beginners, we recommend:

Budget ($200-300 CAD):

- Audio-Technica AT-LP60X (easy, affordable, sounds decent)

Mid-range ($400-600 CAD):

- Audio-Technica AT-LP120X (manual, upgradeable, great value)
- Pro-Ject Debut Carbon (excellent sound, beautiful design)

Avoid: Crosley suitcase players—they're cute but will damage your records over time.

I'm in Montreal. Where can I buy a turntable locally?

- Phonopolis (Mile End) - Great selection and knowledgeable staff
- Cheap Thrills (downtown) - Used turntables and repairs
- Audio Consultation (NDG) - High-end audio equipment

How do I clean my records?

Basic cleaning:

- Carbon fiber brush before each play (removes dust)
- Microfiber cloth for light smudges

Deep cleaning:

- Spin-Clean or similar wet cleaning system ($50-100)
- Vinyl cleaning solution (avoid household cleaners!)
- Let records dry completely before playing

Pro tip: Clean used records before first play—you don't know how they were stored.

What's the deal with inner sleeves?

Original paper inner sleeves can scratch your records over time. Replace them with:

- Anti-static poly sleeves (cheap, effective)
- MoFi or similar audiophile sleeves (premium option)

Your records will thank you.

Should I keep the shrink wrap on?

Remove it! Shrink wrap can warp records over time as it contracts. Keep the hype stickers if you want, but ditch the wrap.

How should I store my records?

- Vertical only - never stack flat (causes warping)
 - Cool, dry place - avoid basements, attics, direct sunlight
 - Tight but not too tight - records should be snug but not crushing each other
 - Use dividers - helps with organization and prevents leaning

Pre-Orders & Special Orders

How do pre-orders work?

Pre-order upcoming releases and we'll ship them on (or shortly after) release date.

- Payment processed when item ships (not when you order)
- Email notification when it ships
- Cancel anytime before shipping

What if a release gets delayed?

Label delays happen constantly in vinyl production (thanks, supply chain). We'll email you with updated dates. You can cancel anytime for a full refund.

Can you special order something not in your inventory?

Maybe! If it's alternative or dance music and currently in print, we can probably get it. Email requests@mileendrecords.com with:

- Artist and album name
- Label (if known)
- UPC/catalog number (if you have it)

We'll let you know within 48 hours if we can source it and provide pricing.

Do you do record subscriptions or monthly clubs?

Not yet, but we're working on it! Sign up for our newsletter to be notified when we launch our monthly subscription box.

Miscellaneous

Why is vinyl so expensive?

Vinyl production costs have increased significantly:

- Limited pressing plants (high demand, limited capacity)
- Higher manufacturing costs (oil prices affect vinyl production)
- Shipping costs (records are heavy!)

- Small-batch pressings for niche music

We price as fairly as we can while supporting the artists and labels we love.

Do you price-match?

We don't formally price-match, but if you find a record significantly cheaper elsewhere (Canada/USA only), email us. We'll see what we can do.

Can I get notifications when specific records come in stock?

Yes! Email us the artist/album and we'll notify you when it's back. We're working on automated notifications—coming soon.

Do you have a newsletter?

Yes! Sign up at newsletter@mileendrecords.com for:

- New arrivals every Friday
- Exclusive pre-orders
- Discount codes
- Pop-up event announcements
- Staff picks and recommendations

We email once a week. No spam.

Are you hiring?

Not currently, but we're growing! Send your resume and a few of your favorite records to jobs@mileendrecords.com. We'll keep you on file.
